FOREWORD

Being the year 1949, the Millerette Staff decided to use as their theme, the Gold Rush of '49'. As the prospectors of 1849 found their wealth in gold, we hope the Seniors now graduating will find their wealth in some form as they go through life. Whether it be in the form of money or happiness.

DEDICATION

We, the Millerette Staff, would like to dedicate this annual to Loren Pelchrizim, who, by his untimely death was robbed of all the joys which comes to any person who attends school.

JUNIOR REVIEW

In the junior class at the beginning of the year, there were sixteen of us. About the first thing we did was to elect officers and sponsor, they were as follows:

President-----David Bartholomew
Vice President-----Herbert Moser
Sec.-Treas.-----Don Sheline
Reporter-----Robert Moser
Sponsor-----Miss Hooley

Then one of our class members, Larry McKibbin, quit October 1, that left only fifteen.

We were allowed two class meetings per month and four parties per year.

Also on October 1, we started our softball tourney. The Juniors played the Seniors on one game and in another we played the Freshmen. Then next week the Seniors and Juniors battled it out with the Juniors winning. This is the third year our class has won the boys' softball tourney and hope to win it next year.

About November 1, we had our magazine sale. There were two teams. Donald Burtsfield, ELDS, and Herbert Mosers, ELUES. The sale lasted 21 days and the ELDS won and the ELUES gave the ELDS a party. Our profit was $100.86.

On November 3, after waiting for eight weeks extra on our class rings we finally got them.

On November 9, we presented our play "Let Me Out Of Here". Our profit was $42.76.

Then on December 21, another one of our class members, Lolita Powell, left us and now we have only fourteen.

On December 23, we selected Gail Kurtz to play her accordion for the Christmas program in the gym.

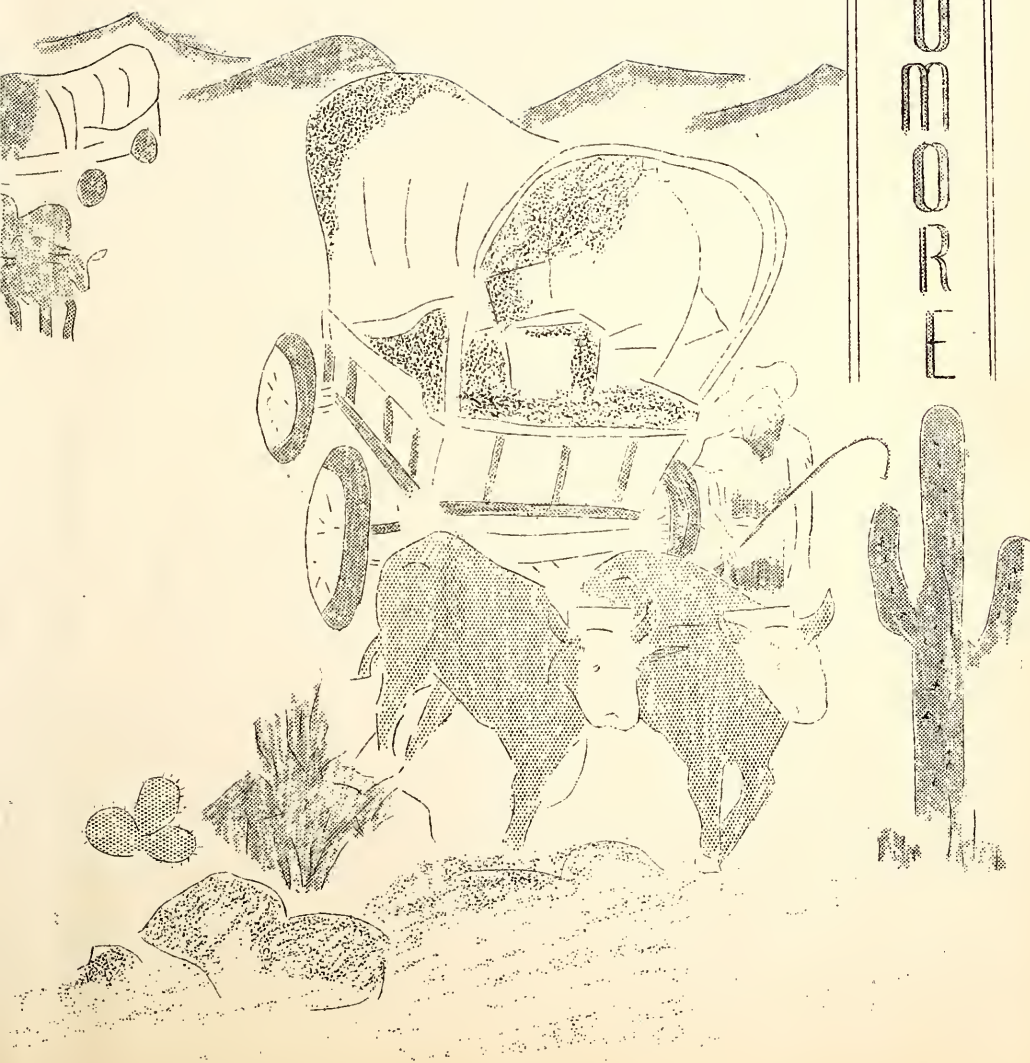

On March 5, we had the 48-49 class basketball tourney. The second game was between the Juniors and Seniors. The Juniors led most of the time, but when the game was over the score was 39-39, so we had to play three minutes more, and the Seniors won 45-41. The two losers played, Freshmen and Juniors. The Juniors won 41-29.

On March 10, we had our first class party. We spent it rolling crepe paper for the reception, but we all had a good time.

On April 29, we had the juniors-senior reception. There were thirty-four present. The theme was "Cannibals". On May 10, we had our last day school party at Sugar Hill.

SOPHOMORE REVIEW

We started to school this year with 26 members in class. We elected our class officers as follows:

President-----Glen Showalter
Vice President-----Bob Mussleman
Sec. & Treas.-----Peg Schrock
Reporter-----Jewel Stutzman

Mr. Miller, our geometry teacher, made us a good class sponsor.

To make money we sold Christmas greetings and made $104.67.

Our class colors are red and white and our motto is "Launched but not anchored". The flower is white lily of the valley.

We had a Freshman-Sophomore Initiation party Oct. 19, we also had a party in the gym on Feb. 8. We have had a good time and plenty to eat at each party.

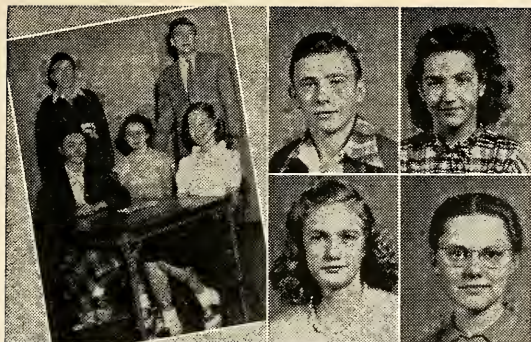

For the girls' class tourney, we drew the Seniors. The Sophomore boys drew the Freshmen. They played March 4, 1949.

The class yell leaders were Peg Schrock, Marlene Boomershine, and Jewel Stutzman.

We had a party on the last day of school at Homer Darr's picnic grounds at Benton.

FRESHMEN REVIEW

The Class of "52" met with Mr. Davis and the following officers were chosen:

President-----Carol Ann Petry
Vice Pres.----Rose Ann Troyer
Sec.-Treas.-----John Thomas
Reporter----Marilyn Litwiller
Sponsor-----Mr. Olinger

We started the year with 32 members. We lost five and gained three which leaves us a total of 30 members.

We chose green and white as our class colors, the American Beauty rose as our flower, and "To thine own self be true." is our motto.

Our sweaters were ordered in October and received November 17.

The biology classes went to Chicago, October 16. We visited the Shedd Aquarium, Museum of Science and Industry and Fields Museum.

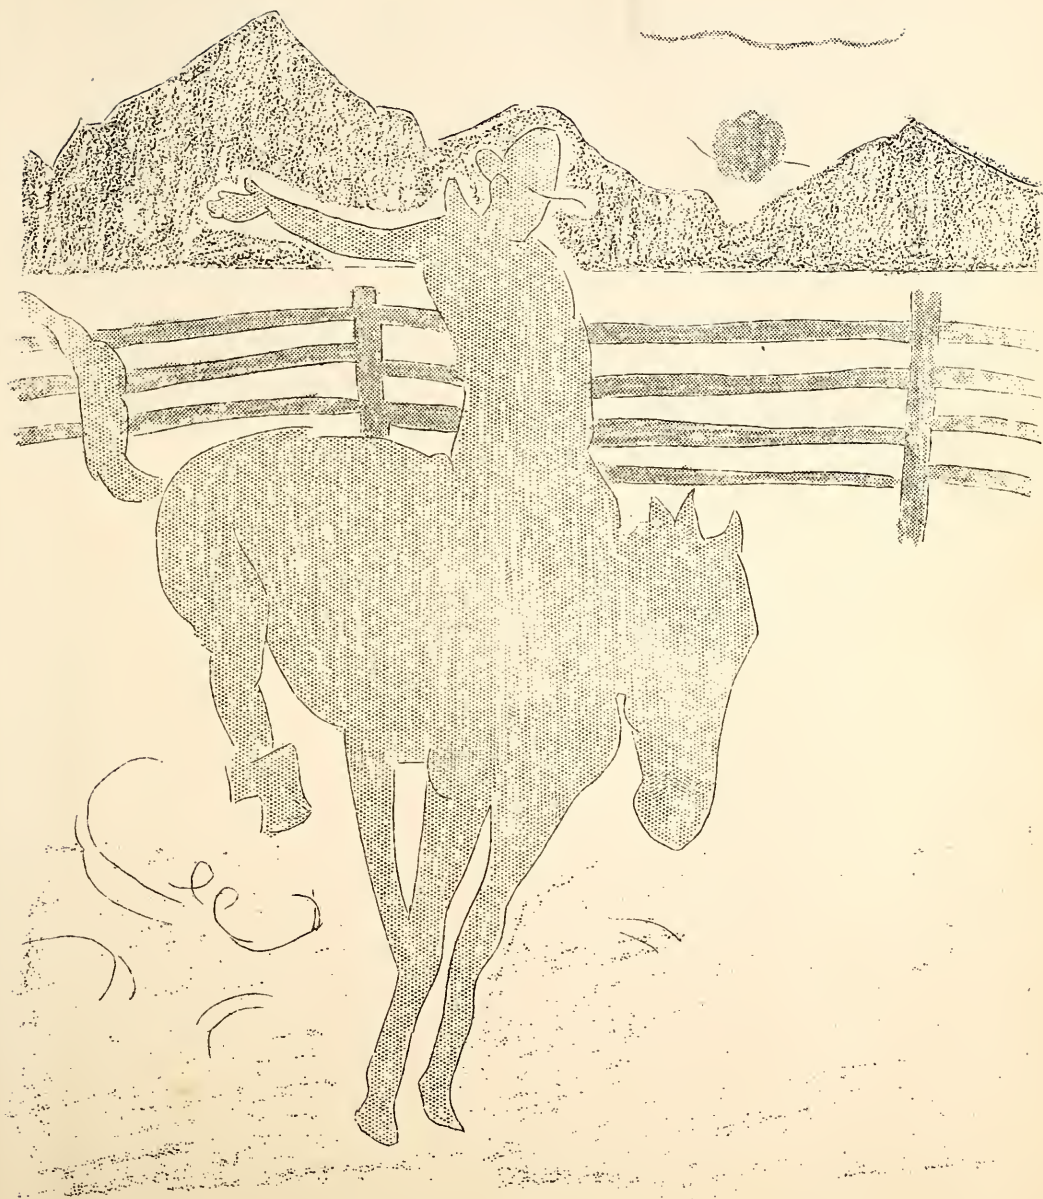

October 19, we were initiated into M.H.S. by the Sophomores. Everyone enjoyed this party.

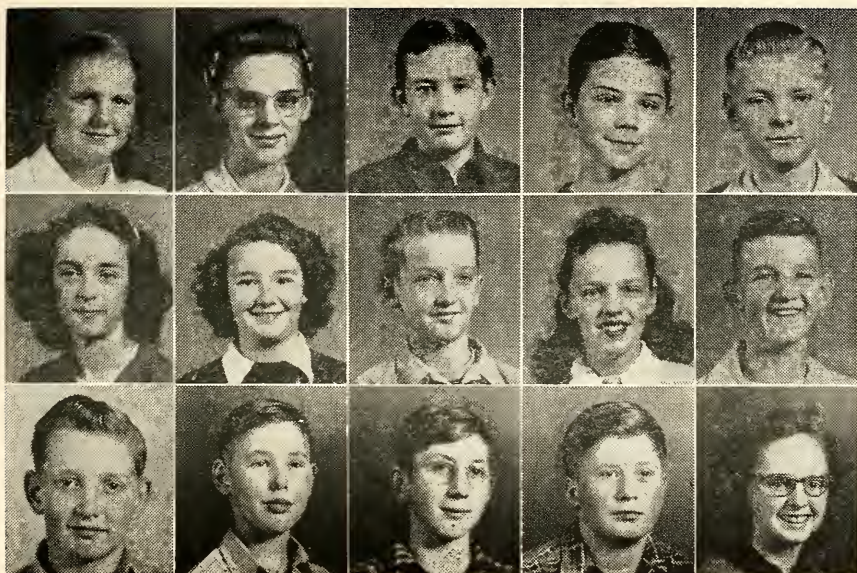

A box social was held February 14 to raise money for class tourney decorations and our class party. We received $10 profit.

Next was the class tourney. Rose Ann Troyer, Marilyn Litwiller, and Richard Kehr were chosen our yell leaders. Although we didn't win, we know they played swell.

Then came our one and only class party which was held in the gym, 7:00 p.m., March 16. Games such as volley ball, shuffleboard, were played. Refreshments were then served consisting of barbeques, bean salad, cookies and Pepsi Cola. The evening was enjoyed by all.

GRADE REVIEW

The first grade read three pre-primers and two readers this year. Numbers were written to one hundred. Most of the work in art was freehand drawing. Some of the rudiments of music were learned and songs of child life were sung. In the Library Club the aim was to read forty books. The Helper's Club worked for better manners and conduct in halls. All together each child completed four work books.

In looking over the happenings for the second grade this year one might think first of the division between the first and second grades. New light, tables, chairs and library books were purchased for the room. The library club's motto was "We enjoy reading books". Several have become very good in spelling and we have worked hard in addition and subtraction. Along with work we had fun having parties.

The third and fourth grades are in a different room this year. Their room is formerly the fifth and sixth grade room. On Halloween they entertained their mother with recitations, songs, and a play. On Washington Day they presented a play to the other grades and to the General Culture Club. The fourth grade studied geography this year for the first time. They learned many interesting things about other countries. Some pupils made murals illustrating different countries. Both grades have made several elementary science experiments during the year.

There are thirty-nine in our room. Because Miss Weigle's room was overcrowded we had to change rooms with the seventh & eighth grade, who were sent upstairs. For our library we got some new books. We also received a whole new set of Compton's Encyclopedias. We have had a movie practically every week.

The seventh and eighth grades started the year off with a Halloween Party for the seventh grade girls given by the eighth grade girls and at Christmas both the boys and girls enjoyed the exchange of presents. Refreshments of ice cream and candy were served. The seventh grade girls entertained the eighth grade girls at a Valentine party. We had a farewell party for Mary Hartsough.

The seventh and eighth grade boys had several ball games during the year. The seventh and eighth grade girls made candy and baked muffins in activities period.

ACTIVITIES REVIEW

The girls glee club have been very busy giving concerts at local churches to raise money for newly purchased robes. We took part in the community Christmas program. Some of the girls also served at the supper that was given for the basketball boys. We attended the music festival on March 31 and entered the contest at Waterloo. We won second.

The boys glee club also sang at the concerts. We took part in the music festival at Elkhart.

The president was Esther Showalter. Each class had two representatives in the student council, including two from the junior high. A committee for assembly programs was appointed for each month. The first program was given by the debate team from Goshen College. The Dramatics club gave a comedy play and novelty skit. In February, a German student at Goshen College gave a talk about his native country. We were privilege to hear Mr. John D. Shiraef. The council organized an Ushers club. An admission charge of 5¢ was set for assembly programs. A motion was voted on and passed that Seniors who do not receive a signed diploma shall not take part in the graduation exercises. The council sponsored the class tourney.

The GAA girls had cake raffles at most of the home ball games. The girls got the gym on Friday and chose three teams. A playday was planned but had to be postponed because of lack of heat in the building. We gave a party for the EBIA and Mr. LeCont. Fifteen senior girls received sweaters.

We had our regular program and business meeting every third Wednesday of each month. The girls sold candy at noon to raise money. Last fall we brought old shoes and sent packages overseas. We had a party for our fathers. On April 6, we entertained our mothers.

We had a Latin banquet and several parties. The Seniors were awarded their pins at this time. We made scrapbooks. April 22 we were guest of the Bristol club. The highlights of this year was April 25 when the Senior were taken to supper and afterwards to a movie.

This is a new club that has been started at MHS this year. We gave a play three times. We also ordered pins for each member.

The FFA boys had a crop show. We harvested the pop corn on the school ground, then we popped and sold it at the ball games. We built a hog house, gate and farrowing crate. The sophomore boys have been testing their herds of cows and the freshman boys in the club have been testing soil. Wheat and oats were planted. We also planted trees.

SENIOR PLAY

The senior play "The Adorable Imp" was given in the Millersburg Gymnasium on March 25, 1949, at 8:00PM.

The cast of characters was as follows:

Hortense Hostetler-----	Rachel Hershberger
Pamela Gordon-----	Evelyn Stroup
Betty Gordon-----	Shirley Darr
Abby Simpkins-----	Marilyn Norlen
Winston Pickrell-----	Douglas Long
Dilworth Pickrell-----	Pat Miller
Imogene VanRyndon-----	Carolyn Saggars
Clint Purdy-----	Ray Swihart
Brian Barclay-----	Lowell McGill
Malvina Barclay-----	Esther Showalter
Ross Waldron-----	Norris Boomershine

As the curtain rose, the maid and Betty Lou made a mysterious discovery; there was a strange looking snowman on the lawn and no one knew how it had gotten there. Pamela Gordon had invited Winston and Dilworth Pickrell plus Imogene VanRyndon and her boyfriend, Ross Waldron, to spend the weekend with them in hopes that she and Abby might capture a rich husband.

Both Pamela and Abby had told the Pickrells that they were younger than they really were and consequently Pam could not have a seventeen year old daughter so Betty Lou dressed up like an eleven year old girl.

Pam showed Betty Lou and Abby a snapshot of Winston Dilworth, Imogene and Ross; Betty Lou discovered that Ross was the boy she had fallen madly in love with at the Thanksgiving football game.

Malvina Barclay, a neighbor of the Gordons, is opposed to her father marrying any one, but her father is interested in marrying Pamela Gordon. Malvina told the Gordons of a murderous ghost who haunted the house in the disguise of a snowman.

Pam ordered a cook and a butler from the Acme Employment Agency to help impress the Pickrells. Betty Lou had Brian Barclay disguise himself as the butler and Clint Purdy, Abby's beau, as the Irish butler.

The cook and butler got things terribly mixed up and fairly murders the Pickrells when they come. Betty Lou, still disguised as an eleven year old girl, makes life miserable for Dilworth, Winston, and Imogene while she tried to capture Ross' heart.

JUNIOR PLAY

The Juniors presented their class play "Let Me Out of Here" in the high school gymnasium on November 9, 1948. Approximately 275 persons attended. The cast is as follows:

Eve Boyd-----Aunt Angeles niece-Gail Kurtz
Bona Lynn---Eve's roommate-Burdene Shelina
Bessie Rhodes-The landlady-----June Hite
Hazel Miles-The colored maid-Miriam Miller
Stevie Cobb--Elevator boy-----Ted Smith
Garret Lynn--Bona's Brother-----Don Shelina
Victor Ward-----David Bertholomew
 Garret's friend
Angela Boyd--The Aunt-----Phyllis Cripe
Gifford Morton-Eves Cousin---Herbert Moser
Marshall Ward--Victor's Father-Robert Moser

The play centered around Eve Boyd and her Aunt Angela who wanted her to marry Gifford Morton, a writer of children's stories. When all the time Eve wants Garret Lynn, her roommate's brother.

Garret's friend, Victor Ward, tears his trousers and from then on Garret, Victor and Victor's father, Marshall, are forced to wear bathrobes and almost anything they can lay their hands on.

Hazel, the colored maid, enters the picture when she sees Victor with a bathrobe around him and thinks he is a thief and then promptly faints.

Stevie, the colored elevator boy, sees Marshall with a sheet wrapped around him and thinks he is a ghost.

The audience seemed to enjoy themselves. And as a whole the play was presented considering the short time in which it was prepared.

RECEPTION

The junior and senior reception was held in the Millersburg High School gymnasium on April 22, 1949. A Cannibal theme was chosen by the hosts. The gym was decorated with bright green and yellow streamers forming an arch over the heads of the guests. The main attraction was a grass hut with a stuffed cannibal in front of it.

The guests were ushered to their places while the "Three Notes" played a few numbers. In keeping with the Cannibal theme the tables were decorated with small groups of palm trees standing on a sandy beach. At each guest's plate was a miniature stew kettle decorated as a nut cup. Each guest received one of these as a favor.

After everyone was seated the orchestra continued playing while the meal was served.

After consuming a steak dinner with all the trimmings the toastmaster, Theron Shooley, rose and introduced the first speaker of the program. David Bartholomew, the junior class president, then welcomed the Seniors to Cannibal Isle. A response was then given by Esther Showalter president of the senior class.

Next on the program was a duet called "Grucsome Twosome" given by Miriam Miller and Gail Kurtz. Mr. Davis then gave the group a talk entitled "Black Magic". "Spooks", a piano solo was then given by Gail Kurtz. This was followed by a talk by Miss Hooley entitled "Masquerade Plus". Don Burtsfield and Harold Showalter then gave a conversational duet called "Jungle Voodoo". This was followed by a number from a quartet of junior boys, Don Sheline, Herbert Moser, Kenneth Kauffman and Robert Moser. The toastmaster then thanked everyone for being present and then the whole group accompanied by the "Three Notes" finished the evening by singing "Auld Lang Sine".

COMMUNITY

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The annual Christmas program was given by the combined churches of Clinton and Benton Township in the UHS gym on Sunday evening, December 19, 1949.

The "Coming of Christ", a pageant in eight scenes, was given. The pageant tells in a new way the old, old story of the birth of Christ. There were five choirs furnished the musical background.

Admission was free but an offering was taken to care for expenses and to help pay for Bible instruction in the two township.

The pageant was directed by Mrs. WM Cable, assisted by Mr. Lawrence Olinger. Mr. Ralph Fletcher was director of music and the adult choirs. School choirs were under the direction of Mary McDowell. Numerous committees were busy preparing stage properties, costumes, programs so forth.

A partial list of the cast follows:

Isaiah-----Rev. Nunemaker
Worshippers-----Clinton-Brick Choirs
Children's Choir-----Millersburg School
(Grades 1 to 6)

Mary-----Ruth Long

VALEDICTORY

Parents, teachers, and friends:

We, the Seniors of "49", have been working and planning together for this day which marks the completion of our school life together. We have been looking forward to this day but now that it is here we regret the thought of leaving our classmates and the friends we have made in Millersburg High School.

Like the men and women during the gold rush of 1849 we are at the threshold of our lives going forward and seeking new goals of achievement. We cannot help but feel somewhat elated over our achievements in our high school days because we know that we have reached a goal worth while.

At commencement time we are ready to let "by-gones be by-gones" and we look into the future with only good will and the best feelings toward one and all. In the past we have had difficulties to settle, schoolmates and classmates have not always agreed, but at commencement season we wish to wipe the slate clean and mark this occasion as a happy one in our lives.

Our graduation has not been realized by a short or easy method, but it is the result of carefully laid plans. Although the outline of our school work was planned in advance we would not have been able to reach our goal if we would not have had the patient help and guidance of our teachers and parents. Commencement is a time when we more fully appreciate the sacrifices our parents have made to make our graduation possible. We also appreciate the never-ending work of our teachers, who have guided and instructed us in order that we may make the most of our lives.

Graduation is not the end of our accomplishments, it is really only a beginning. What we have been able to do stands out as very small compared with what lies before us. We will leave this school as men and women with adult responsibilities placed upon us. We must not and we will not fail to take our responsibilities in life.

Now, with cherished memories of our fun together in school, we look toward the new and challenging future with highest hopes for our happiness and success.

CLASS POEM

Four years ago, we pioneers,
Started out across the plains
In hopes of finding a gold mine
Where we could file our claims.

Our hopes were high
Our minds were carefree,
For hidden were the dangers
Which we could not see..

We stumbled on the dangers;
We pondered them o'er
We stored up this wisdom
In case there were more.

Our parties were many
All happy and³gay
Along with the work
Was always the play.

These things are all gone
But then there are yet
Those wonderful memories
Which we'll never forget.

The claims are filed
Ours is the land,
But next comes the work--
The gold must be panned.

The journey was long
Some stumbled and fell
But we have our claims
So all will end well.

In all years ahead
May we each make our strike
And always work for
Those things good and right.

CLASS HISTORY

As we, the '49rs, dig into our future for gold of happiness and wisdom, we shall look back to our school days as a great nugget in our treasure chest of gold. However, the past four years shall bear the brightest glint of the 12. Let us roll our wagon wheels back over the trail and look at the past journey we have taken.

When we, as "green freshies", first tramped these unfamiliar grounds everything was strange to us. As days went by, we became more at home and met one day to elect the following class officers from our 39 members:

President-----John Rink
Vice President-----Shirley Darr
Secretary & Treasurer---Pat Miller
Reporter-----Rowan Keim
Sponsor-----Mr. Lehman

Still being young and very inexperienced we met later and chose red and grey as our class colors. "Give to your class the best you have, and the best will come back to you" was chosen as our class motto and the tulip was chosen as our flower. By this time we were beginning to get acquainted with our teachers, other students and our studies. We were just beginning to think how nice things were when the Sophomores announced that we were to be initiated September 28. After doing stunts all the way from climbing stairs in the dark to pushing walnuts across the stage we were fed some horrid refreshments. Survivors of the initiation enjoyed our first class party which was held October 28 in an old school house complete with weird ghosts and jack-o-lanterns.

Our class sweaters came on November 9. They were red with grey letters. Our second party was in the form of a hayride and we enjoyed it as much as we did the sunny day we were honored to journey to Elkhart and visit the Miles Laboratory under the supervision of Miss Hooley and Mr. Lehman.

We had a good representation in the class tournaments although we weren't the champs. The yell leaders elected were Evelyn Stroup, Carol Owen, Shirley Darr and Virginia Brill. Our freshman year was closed with a party on the last day of school. A treasure hunt and weiner roast were much enjoyed.

After a summer of hiking, swimming and hard work, 26 of our original 39 members returned to join us in our Sophomore year. In organizing our class we elected the following officers:

(CONTD)

President-----Esther Showalter
Vice President-----Norma McKibbin
Secretary & Treasurer---Carol Owen
Reporter-----Pat Miller
Sponsor-----Mr. Cooper

To earn money for our class we sold Christmas cards and received $63.13 as our profit. We officially initiated the freshman in a "Truth or Consequences" program on September 26. Especially prepared refreshments were served.

Knowing how well everyone likes to skate we sponsored a skating party at the Elkhart roller rink. Ray Swihart was our host to our first class party of the year at Halloween time. Apples, popcorn and cider were enjoyed by all. Mr. Burkey was our sponsor for this party in place of Mr. Cooper. Mr. Davis acted as sponsor for our second party which was held in the gym.

Again we took part in the class tournaments. Our yell leaders this year were Marilyn Norlen, Norma McKibbin and Shirley Darr. We came in third in boys' basketball and the girls were defeated by one point in basketball but made up for it by taking the softball tourney.

We ordered our class rings on March 25 from the Josten Company and closed our sophomore year with a party on the last day of school.

Coming back for our Junior year we entered school with an enrollment of 24. Losing Mervin Miller, Katha Kuhn and Lawrence Butler from our sophomore year, we gained Carolyn Saggars from Topeka High School. After three weeks of school Audre Tope left us so our enrollment then stood at 23. In organizing our class we elected the following officers:

President-----Esther Showalter
Vice President-----Carolyn Saggars
Secretary & Treasurer---Carol Owen
Reporter-----Shirley Darr
Sponsor-----Miss Hooley

Knowing that we must earn some money for our next year of school we sold concessions at basketball games and later sold magazines. We presented our play, "A Case of Springtime" on December 2, which was a big success.

Our first party was at Halloween time and our second was at the conclusion of our magazine sales. We also painted megaphones at this party to sell at basketball games.

(CONT'D)

We elected Gladys Kauffman as our queen candidate for the carnival and were glad to have her place third in the contest. A potluck supper was the center of another evenings enjoyment on March 16.

John Rink and Norma McKibbin were our representatives on the Student Council. Esther Showalter was President of the Council.

Planning our reception for the Snickers was the big task of the year. Our theme was "A Dutch Garden." It was held April 23 with John Rink acting as Master of Ceremonies. We are glad it was such a big success.

Attending the Seniors in their graduation exercises was our final task and then we closed with a big party at the home of Carol Owen on the last day of school.

As the wheels started their final turn in our high school career, we returned to MHS as Seniors with an enrollment of 23. Gloria Trim has left us and Katha Kuhn joined us again. In organizing our class this year we elected the following officers:

President-----	Esther Showalter
Vice President-----	Pat Miller
Secretary & Treasurer----	Carolyn Saggars
Reporter-----	Shirley Darr
Sponsor-----	Mr. Davis

We began the year by helping Carolyn Saggars celebrate her birthday and a surprise party on Mr. Davis. Neither party being counted as a school party we started planning a "hard times" party.

Our pictures were taken on October 6 and our proofs came on the 15th. After several weeks our pictures arrived on Friday, November 19.

We were proud to have Esther Showalter and Pat Miller elected president and vice president of the Student Council. John Rink and Gladys Kauffman were our class representatives on the council.

The girls started the year right by winning the softball tourney for the third time in our high school days. The boys played in the finals but lost to the Juniors.

Our mock legislature in Government class was a main event of the year, topped with a visit to the court house to witness a trial. Many other things kept us going night after night including a skating party we sponsored December 22. And then it was time for our Senior trip which was looked forward to and enjoyed by all. We chose our Senior play and were very busy practicing for it. We are glad it was such a big success.

Next came the reception which we enjoyed very much. Thank you, Juniors, a lovely time was had by each and everyone of us. Baccalaureate was next on our calendar. After enjoying all of these good times it made us sad to think of what came next. You guessed it, examinations. They were given on May 4. After they were completed everyone was feeling fine again and looking forward to the presentation of our diplomas at Commencement on May 5.

Tonight, Class Night, completes our journey across the plains of time and brings us to the year of 1949 where we as 49'ers begin to "dig" our future and "bury" the good old days at MHS, which are never to be forgotten.

CLASS PROPHECY

After prospecting for 40 years in search of gold I finally struck it rich and decided to straddle my trusty steed and find out what happened to the graduating class of "49".

As my trusty steed, Percy, and I came to a ranch house, who should I recognize but big, lanky, Norris Boomershine; he said he farmed about 10,000 acres, he always did exaggerate things.

During our course of conversation after supper he said that Doug Long was foreman of the Millersburg Street Cleaners. He also talked about how the country was going to the dogs, especially with the first woman president, Esther Showalter.

I decided to leave my trusty steed, Percy, at his ranch and make use of the marvel of the ages, the jet-propelled chair, invented by that famous inventor, Calvin Putnam, whom according to recent reports closely escaped death in several automobile accidents.

In Dallas I happened to meet Dorothy Sark who said she was a missionary in Texas. It seems she was headed for India but after Georgia Hite married a guy down there, there was where she thought she was needed.

On my way to Chicago I stopped off in Kansas to see my old friend Ray Swihart who now owns a 2,000 acre wheat farm. While waiting on him to get supper, he still hasn't gone with a girl I picked up a science book and read an article written by Mary Jo Smith, now leading mathematician of the world.

In Chicago I met Virginia Brill, who is a tap dancer at the Palmer House. As usual, Virginia knew just about where everybody was and what they were doing and was also in a talkative mood; I found out that Katha Kuhn was the chef at the Hotel Statler in New York, Carolyn Saggars was married to Don Sheline but before they went on their honeymoon, Don was arrested and is serving his term in Sing Sing for embezzling money, Kathryn Litwiller married Pete; she didn't know his last name or where they are living, Lois Cripe is now a concert pianist, Evelyn Stroup is secretary for Pat Miller, the second richest man in the world, Rachel Hershberger now is an opera singer, Gladys Kauffman is teaching in a one room schoolhouse, Norma McKibbin owns a chicken farm, Shirley Darr has married Don Schrock, Carol Owen is head of an old maids' home and that Marilyn Norlen is office girl back at M.H.S.

Up to date I had learned about all of my former classmates except one. But I later read where Lowell McGill had become King of the Hoboes.

I hope you have liked this trip we have taken, partly by horse and the rest by the jet-propelled chair.

GRUMBLE

We, the Seniors of the 49'ers, have plenty to grumble about, but I doubt if we will have as much to grumble about as the people did back about the time of the gold miners of 1849.

The kids who eat in cafeteria grumble because when they have something good, they won't give you enough to eat and when they have something you don't like, they give you too much.

A certain senior girl grumbles because people get nosy about her future. After all, kids, do you have nose trouble?

Why can't the girls be satisfied with the refereeing of basketball games at noon. Could the kids that do the crabbing do any better?

A certain senior boy grumbles because they don't have enough magazines in the library. Don't you suppose we get tired looking at the same magazines all the time?

Walking in the halls the other day I heard someone say the boys at Millersburg are too stuck up. I would like to know if they are any better any place else?

Why can't the clock in the study hall have the same time as the clock in the office? The suspense of waiting on the bell is terrible.

I overheard someone crabbing because the fuses in someone else's car burn out at the wrong time. You wouldn't know anything about this, would you, Gladys?

It is terrible the way the steps squeak when you try to sneak out of class. New steps would greatly improve the school and also aid the kids in sneaking out of class.

Mr. Davis, could you please get some rubber heels on your shoes? The noise disturbs us greatly when we are studying so hard!

Mr. Kimmel, why do you have to send so many kids to the office? By the time they get back to class they have forgotten the assignment.

That sophomore class worries us. Why can't they be a little more gentle like the senior class.

Mrs. Snyder, why do you have to pick on a certain senior boy in bookkeeping class. You know Pat's only a little boy.

It seems as if the school could furnish more programs for the students. You know the saying "You can't learn everything out of books."

I think the seats in the assembly should be equipped with over-stuffed seats. They say you can study much better when you are comfortable.

Why can't escalators be installed in the school; it would cut down on the noise and also save energy to use when you get to class.

Why does Miss Hookey always have to blush when some good-looking salesman walks in? We know it doesn't embarrass you that much.

Why can't the school install a talk-a-phone at every desk? It would be much simpler than running up to the desk to talk to someone else.

Lou, why don't you sweep the two rooms off the stage once in a while. Don't you suppose Mr. LeCount gets tired of sweeping his own rooms all the time.

Mr. Olinger grumbled because he thought the seniors charged too much for the crepe paper for the class tourney. When we were freshmen we had to pay more for our crepe paper, so why should you crab?

Why can't the windows be cleaned around here once in a while? Don't you think we would like to know if the sun is shining, and clean windows would also cut the electricity bill.

Why does the library have to be used as a class room? How are the kids supposed to use the library with class in it all the time?

Why do some people have to be so particular about their eats? You should feel sorry for the girls in cafeteria, Mr. Davis. It makes more work to make your dinner special.

The senior girls grumble because the sophomore girls can't stick to their word. Don't forget, we yelled for you the first game of the tourney.

Why can't they have "serve yourself" cafeteria every day? There wouldn't be near as much garbage that way and students could take what they want and leave the rest there.

Mr. LeCount, why don't you get some nice soft cushions and put on the bench? The subs said it gets pretty hard there.

We'd like to grumble because some kids on the Millerette staff can't take a joke. If you can turn the table and play the joke on us, you're satisfied but you can't take it yourself.

Some of you look like you are getting tired of listening to me so I had better sign off. The last thing I want to say to you is I hope you haven't taken what I have just said too seriously because it was all in fun.

ADVICE FACULTY TO

We, the Seniors of "49", in order to form a more perfect school, establish justice, provide more food at noon, promote students more often, and secure five boys to play basketball, do advise the teachers of M. H. S. in the following way:

First of all, we advise Mr. Miller to keep on trying to teach physics to the Seniors. Maybe your future classes will know more about it, but the best class you ever had is graduating. After all, Mr. Miller, when you assigned us problems, we always gave you the opportunity to do them for us!

Mrs. Snyder, we advise you to insist on having an escalator installed or else have your classes on the bottom floor. After all, walking up and down the stairs may be good exercise, but we know you don't consider it as such.

Mr. Kimmel, we advise you to quit teaching and take up farming. Your agricultural knowledge is too great to waste in a classroom. Perhaps if you got out on the farm and took in enough fresh air and sunshine, you might cultivate more hair on your head.

We advise Mr. Davis not to try to pull any more jokes on the government class. They might backfire one of these times. We also advise you to grow another mustache. Look what a mustache has done for Clark Gable.

We advise Miss Hooloy to get more sleep at night so you won't yawn in your classes the next day. That makes the students sleepy too, Miss Hoolley, and you know the students always go to bed early!

Mr. Olinger, we advise you to take up singing lessons. With your looks and personality you may make another Sinatra. Perhaps too, your singing would come in handy when you serenade your future wife. After all, we know you won't be a bachelor all your life.

We advise Miss Gangwer to keep her good spirits and jolly laugh. When Sadie Hawkins Day comes around, Miss Gangwer, take advantage of it! Who knows, you might be lucky.

We advise Mr. LeCount to keep up his good work with the basketball team. In a few years, with your coaching, M.H.S. may even win the Sectional tourney, something we haven't done, yot.

ADVICE TO FACULTY

(CONT'D)

We advise Miss McDowell to keep up her good work with the Glee Clubs. Keep building the Boys' Glee Club up and perhaps they can go to the State Contest and win Superior rating too. Of course, you know the Girls' Glee Club won't be the same after the Senior girls of "49" graduate.

Last but not least, we advise Mr. Harness to keep up his good nature, and say, Mr. Harness, how about a bigger band for M.H.S., after all our school needs a larger one.

If this advice is put into operation it will probably set dear old M.H.S. back 100 years or more to the days when the Lone Ranger was the law enforcing body of the West. But remember the 49ers of a century ago found "gold in them thar hills out thar", and if our advice is carefully panned, you teachers may discover a nugget here and there! At any rate we Seniors are grub-staking you teachers;----you can take it or leave it!

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF —

In this mining camp, things happen day in and day out that make us laugh and some that make us cry. Here are some of the things that happened in "49" that make us wonder WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF:

Doug Long couldn't grow a mustache?

Miriam Miller couldn't giggle?

Every class in M. H. S. was as smart as the Senior class of '49?

Mr. Kimmel lost his temper?

The talkaphone really worked?

Mr. Olinger couldn't blush so easily?

The school house would accidentally catch fire? You know no one would do it intentionally.

Norris Boomershine went with Millersburg girls? After all, Norris, there are still some available.

Study Hall was kept orderly? That's what the teachers are here for. Take Mr. Olinger for instance, he even sings to the kids.

Don Bartsfield wouldn't be so mean? You could be nice if you really wanted to, Donnie.

Every one flunked their exams?

Delmar Long got a new bus? The one he has now would make a good frozen foods locker plant.

The seniors were allowed to have a sneak day?

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF ?

(CONTD)

Mr. Davis lost his heel plates and the students couldn't hear him coming?

The students were allowed to chew bubble gum?

Marlene Boomershine lost her voice? I guess she would have to learn the sign language.

Miss Hooley wasn't so bashful in public? You're not that way in class, Miss Hooley.

Peg Schrock would give the boys half-a-chance?

Red Moser would be true to one girl? After all, Red, it isn't fair to keep them all guessing.

Norma McKibbin grew to be 6 feet tall? She and Red wouldn't look so good together, would they?

Millersburg could win the county tourney sometime? Of course we don't have a chance since the Senior boys won't be coming back.

Joe Prough were a few years older? Beware, girls!

Mr. Davis got a new car? The one he has now is bad about running over people's feet.

June Hite wasn't so quiet?

John Rink would give the reporters more than one day's notice to get the Millerette news in?

The seniors could go on a trip for a whole week? We don't need to worry about that because it will never happen.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF ?

(CONTD)

The basketball boy's would get new suits to play in?

You seniors know what Norris said it is like playing in the old ones.

The Juniors could keep from breaking typewriters? Maybe there would be enough to go around all of the time.

Mr. LeCount wasn't so good natured?

Mr. Olinger would wake up and realize what good looking single women are teaching at Millersburg? You know Miss Hooley and Miss Kauffman are still available.

Evelyn Stroup and Harold McKibbin were still going together? It could have been wedding bells before long.

The Sophomores would have behaved themselves at the initiation party? There would have been more initiation parties in the future but as it is now there won't be.

The girls got the gym more often?

Miss Hooley wouldn't be using the telephone every time someone else wanted to use it?

The teachers had to get an excuse every time they were late for class? I guess maybe they could sympathize with the students then.

Theron Sheley took up the ministry as his profession?

Now we hope you all got a few laughs out of this camp fire talk and take it in the manner in which it was given: all in fun.

WHO'S WHO

We the Seniors of "49" in seeking for wisdom, the treasure of life, feel that we have found that wisdom in the past twelve years. We will use it to help those who are unfortunate and weak. As the wise old owl Whoo's we will present "Who's Who" to you.

Who's public nuisance No. 1? Mr. Davis
Who knows it? Any one that gets caught.

Who has new robes? Glee Clubs
Who knows it? Basketball boys.

Who's the seventh-grade girl that has lots of boy friends? Dorothy Hite.
Who knows it? John Thomas, Richard Groff, Glen Showalter, and John Lentzer when they all went to see her in Groff's truck.

Who was supposed to buy the school a new typewriter? Robert Moser
Who found it out? Robert

Who's the senior girl that's going steady? Shirley Darr.
Who found it out? Pat Miller when he asked her for a date.

Who has a temper? Mr. Kimmell
Who knows it? Any one in the study hall the fifth period.

Who's the cutest girl in MHS? Norma McKibbin.
Who thinks she is? Marilyn Miller.

Who won the class tourney? The Seniors.
Who thought they would? The Juniors.

Who won the softball tourney? Theron Sheley.
Who wished they could have helped him? The rest of the Juniors.

Who won the girls' softball and basketball tourney? The Seniors.
Who come close to it? No one.

Who's the Sr. girl that has an engagement ring? Shirley Darr.
Who wishes she had one? Miriam Miller.

(CONTD)

Who's the senior girl that hadn't better step out? Marilyn Norlen.

Who knows it? Harold Showalter.

Who wanted a cee and a cradle for Christmas? Calvin Putnam.

Who's it for? His girl friends.

Who's Millersburg's smartest student? Esther Showalter.

Who tries to be? Kathleen Eash.

Who's the best man in school after the Seniors leave? Harold Showalter.

Who knows it? All the basketball players.

Who's car could he use? His dad's Hudson.

We, the Seniors of "49" hope that we haven't done anything to "ride" anyone down, but that we might help them, and may they prosper in wisdom and knowledge as we have. Always seek for the best treasure, "Wisdom", which is the treasure of life.

SALUTATORY

It is a pleasure to extend greetings to the parents, teachers, and friends of this school. We are happy to have you with us for our Class Night exercises when we celebrate our graduation from Millersburg High School.

Our theme for the program tonight is the "Gold Rush of '49". A century has passed since the pioneer men and women blazed new trails to the West in search of gold. They traveled in caravans of covered wagons. Their journeys were long and rough and they often ran into difficulty along the way.

We can compare our lives to theirs. For several years we have been working toward a definite goal. This graduation sees the realization of our goal. It marks a certain work accomplished, a task well finished, and for this reason it is a joyous time. It is a time to forget past mistakes and turn our faces to the future. We only hope that past mistakes and missteps may be guide posts in the newer experiences before us.

Our teachers have been more than instructors. Without their patient guidance and instruction our graduation would not have been possible. The thoughtfulness and interest displayed by the teachers has been an inspiration to the members of the class.

We would salute our parents. Untiring have been their efforts in our behalf. They have made our school days possible. They have worried over our shortcomings and have induced us to keep on with our work. We feel that we owe them a great debt for their efforts and interest.

If this graduation class would go away from this school and make no use of what they have been able to acquire, then all efforts on the part of teachers, parents, and the pupils themselves, would be as naught. Graduation would end all.

But this is not the end, just the commencement. We have merely reached one goal. As we look out into the unknown future, we see ahead of us other goals. We know that we must go forward. If we fail to forge ahead, we must fall back and that is something we do not care to do.

SALUTATORY (CONTD)

Up to this time we have been one body with a single aim. Now we shall be individuals with separate aims and different goals. Our paths may seldom cross or meet, but we will carry with us ideals and inspiration given us by this beloved school.

We, again in closing, extend to you our good wishes and heartiest greeting.

Esther Showalter

CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of "49", after toiling for twelve years, have gained many experiences. As the 49'ers now journey on in the covered wagon in the search of gold we believe that it is not more than proper for such a class as we have been to will some of our many talents to the under classmen. Thus we read our last will and testament as we are leaving this beloved school.

The Seniors will their swell times they have had together the past four years to all the other classes, as well as those to come.

We Seniors will the 7th grade our good percentage of honor roll students. What's the matter kids, don't you come to school to study?

The Seniors will the ability to yell for ourselves to most any other class. It doesn't hurt a thing, does it, Mr. Davis?

The Senior typing class will the Junior boys all the typewriters as well as the typing room for next year. Did it ever appeal to you Juniors that typewriters can't talk and paper wads don't always tattle on the right people.

Now we bequeath our each and own talents to individuals that we think would benefit by their use. We expect all those involved to carry them out to their best acknowledgement.

Esther Showalter wills her ability to be a good class president, as well as president of many clubs, to her brother Glen.

Pat Miller wills his ability to stand on his feet while playing basketball to Theron Sheley. Maybe if you would try it once, Sheley, you wouldn't have those sore knees.

Carolyn Saggars wills all her love to Don Sheline. I'm sure Don doesn't want anyone else to have it, Carolyn.

Shirley Darr wills her ability to keep a steady man to Burdene Sheline. Maybe you wouldn't need to miss so many music concerts, Buzz.

(CONTD)

Norris Boomershine wills his ability to get a girl from another school to David Bartholomew. It might be worth a try, Dave.

Virginia Brill wills her happy go lucky attitude to June Hite. Life is much too short to take so seriously, June.

Lois Cripe wills some of her blond hair to Mr. Davis. You need something to cover that bald spot.

Rachel Hershberger wills her ability to yell at ball games to Peg Schrock. Keep up the school spirit, Peg.

Gladys Kauffman wills her cute figure and natural smile to most any girl of M. H. S. Who wouldn't want it?

Katha Kuhn wills her pleasant disposition to Marilyn Miller. No need getting angry so easily, Marilyn.

Georgia Hite wills her ability to lose her government book to Ray Powell. Those grades you get, Powell, I see no need of a book for studying.

Kathryn Litwiller wills the ability to be engaged at the age of 17 to her sister Marilyn. Keep the family tradition, Marilyn. That Melvin Slabach is pretty cute.

Doug Long wills his ability to tease the girls to Kenny Kauffman. Better start talking more, Kenny, you'll never get any place being so quiet.

Lowell McGill wills his ability to get to school late to the faculty. Don't you realize, teachers, it is a bit hard for some students to get here on time.

Marilyn Norlen wills her good cheer leading to Lyle Burtsfield. It might take off a few pounds, Boob.

Carol Owen wills her musical ability to Margaret Groff. The glee clubs will need a good pianist next year, Margaret.

Calvin Putnam wills his ability to blush to Leonard Baer. You might have an idea of what it is to be embarrassed, Leonard.

John Rink wills his position as editor of the Millerette to Rose Ann Troyer. You may get the job in three years, Rose Ann.

(CONT'D)

Dorothy Sark wills her quiet ways to Colleen Smith. Many more parties like the Freshmen, Sophomore initiation and you won't even get to attend school, Colleen.

Mary Jo Smith wills her physics book to her brother Theodore. You will get it any way if you take the subject next year.

Evelyn Stroup wills her class ring to Donnie Burtsfield. I'm sure it was meant for no one else.

Ray Swihart wills his ability to eat to Dick Simmons. You may have a chance of becoming a man if you try it, Dick.

Norma McKibbin wills her height of five feet to Harold Showalter. Can't you realize, Showalter, everyone isn't gifted the way you are.

Thus reads the class-will and now as we, the Seniors of 1949, leave Millersburg High School we would like to remind our fellow under-classmen that it hasn't been all pleasure, and for them to get down to work as the people of "49" have done.

ADVICE

TO THE

Since we the Seniors of 49 have experienced the difficulties and hardships over this rugged path which we have come and the goal we have finally reached, we feel that we are in a position to give the Juniors some good sound advice.

We advise Don Sheline to quit school and get married; Carolyn has all the brains anyway.

We advise Theron Sheley to learn to type before he breaks the school up buying typewriters.

We advise Herbert Moser to try Carol Owen again, we hear Pfiester is slowly losing out.

We advise Phyllis Cripe to keep after David Bartholomew. He may give in yet.

We advise Mriam Miller to take up ballet. It would be good for your ankels,, Miriam.

We advise Harold Showalter to do more studying. Harold it takes 32 credits to graduate, Harold.

We advise Ted Smith to take Charles Atlas exercises. Just look, Ted, what it did for Don Sheline.

We advise David Bartholomew not to listen to the boys in the shop. Dave, we know that the tools that are cut into are expensive.

We advise Ray Powell to be a prize fighter. Ray, with your muscles, you could whip anyone.

We advise Gail Kurtz to study more and read less story books. Story books don't teach the right information.

We advise June Hite to got with Kenneth Kauffman, Since you're both so quiet, you'd really make a good pair.

We advise Kenneth Kauffman to be less bashful. You know the girls go for the brave and bold type.

We advise Don Burtsfield to get another girl. When Mac comes back, you'll have to find another girl, anyway.

We advise Robert Moser to go back to Norma. Good girls are hard to find.

ADVICE JUNIORS TO THE (CONTD)

Well, pardners, we'll have to get some shut-eye now so that we can get up bright and early tomorrow morning and "Hit the trail" in search of another mining town. We hope all the advise we have given you, will be taken in the manner given.

CLASS SONG

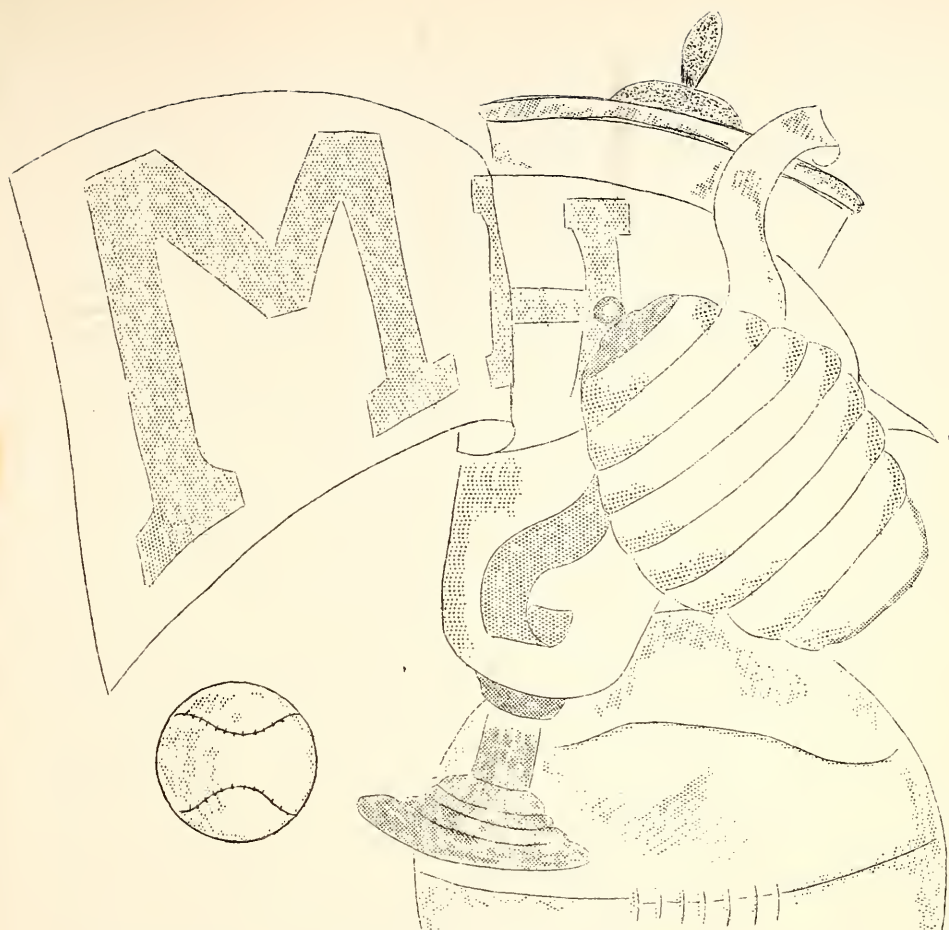

Tune - Banks of the Wabash

Dear classmates we have reached our graduation,
And from now, our paths will lead us far apart.
Our teachers who so kindly labored with us
Will be held a sacred memory in each heart.

Of Millersburg High School we'll be alumni,
And each year we'll long to gather here once more
To greet with joy the dear familiar faces
Of the classmates of the happy days before.

Revived will be the memories of the glee club,
The ball teams and the leaders of the yells,
Government exams and physics seemed terrific,
And a grade of F would throw us into spells.

But since we've made the grade we'll all be grateful
And hope the teachers our diplomas sign.
We'll cherish them through years to come, and now friends,
Sincerely yours, The class of 1949.

1ST TEAM REVIEW

The Millersburg Millers didn't have too good a season this year but did pick up some toward the end of the season by winning four out of the last six games.. They did, however, get the highest number of points for the Millers in a long time.

The boys played some of the toughest teams around, some of them including Ligonier, New Paris, Jimtown, Topeka and Shipshewana. They also played Concord and Syracuse which proved to be "the" toughest as they were sectional tourney winners from around here.

The Millers defeated Rome City on February 1, which was Rome City's only seasonal loss up to that time. The next real upset of this season was when the Millers defeated the Jimtown Jimmies in the sectional tourney at Nappanee. This game was won by a score of 33 to 38. The Millers also lost two games by one point and three more by only four points.

LeCount's men were complimented by the radio announcer at the sectional tourney as being a fine working and one of the smoothest teams in the county. Also a couple of the boys from the Millers' team was chosen for the All-County Sectional team.

The boys are doing their best and are looking for a better season next year.

2ND TEAM REVIEW

The second team Millers didn't have too good a season either, part of this being a lack of height. All of this team is composed of Freshmen and Sophomores, and all of these being without any experience.

These boys are very small comparatively, but even though they got knocked around quite a bit, they have the spirit to stay in there and fight. They also, toward the end of the season, turned in some very nice games.

The second team Millers lost three of their games by one point each and eight more games by less than ten points.

Several of these boys were getting some experience on the first team this year and proved able to take their part.

A few of these boys will be regulars on the varsity next year along with the Juniors.

7-8 GRADE BB REVIEW

The seventh and eighth grade teams played 12 games. They won 25% of these and lost 75%, but they were really playing the game and need a lot of thanks. Following is a list of the teams played:

The Freshmen and Sophomore Softball team also played one game with another school. This game was with Jefferson and also won by Jefferson with a close score of 5 to 4 on September 24.

B.B. BOYS PERSONALITIES

Norris Boomershine-The tallest boy on the squad and a good shot. Norris is a Senior and he made quite a lot of points while playing center on the team. He stands 6' 1/4" and weighs 156 pounds.

Douglas Long-Another Senior on the team, and the heaviest and biggest man in the group. Doug is right in after the ball and incidently shoots quite a few long shots. Doug weighs 190 pounds and stands 5' 10".

Pat Miller-A senior boy on the squad and a good ball player. Pat is not too large but he is a clever ball handler. Pat stands 5' 7" and weighs 135 lbs.

John Rink-The smallest boy on the Millers' squad but is very scrappy. "Little" Johnny is a Senior and he made a lot of nice shots this season. John weighs 117 pounds and stands 5' 5" tall.

Harold Showalter-A Junior and a husky man on the squad. Harold played pivot and was big and rough under the basket. Harold weighs 170 pounds and stands just 6 feet.

Robert Moser-A rather small red-headed Junior on the team. Bob is a "lefty" but is a fast man with the ball. Robert stands 5' 7 3/4" and weighs 138 pounds.

Theron Sheley-Another husky man on the squad. Theron a Junior and more tumbly and bouncy. Theron tips the scales at 178 pounds and stands 5' 8".

Donald Burtsfield-Also a Junior on the team this year. Don is a good defense man and can hold his man. Don weighs 146 pounds and stands 5' 8".

John Lantzer-The fastest man on the squad. Johnny is only a Sophomore but can get out there and really go down that floor with the ball. John stands 5' 7 3/4" and weighs 141 pounds.

Junior Miller-Another Sophomore on the team. Junior is a bit wild at times but is always in the game as guard. Junior weighs 119 pounds and stands 5' 5".

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

The girls' basketball tourney was played during the noon hour of three days, the first game being played on March 1, 1949. The draw revealed the first game would be played between the Juniors and Freshmen and of course the second between the Seniors and Sophomores.

As the Juniors have only four girls in the class they had to get outside help. The Freshmen defeated the Juniors in this game by a score of 3 to 2. The more experienced Seniors then defeated the Sophomores in the second game by a score of 7 to 4, leaving the Seniors and Freshmen to battle it out for the championship. The Seniors overpowered the Freshmen by a total score of 10 to 0, thus making them the champion for the girls.

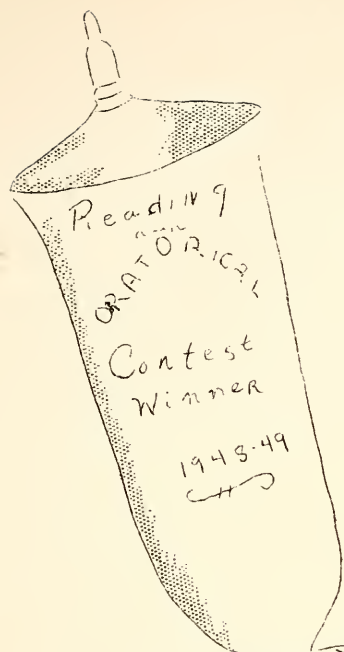

On Friday evening, March 4, 1949, the boys basketball tourney was held in the Millersburg gym. The first game in the evening was between the Sophomore and Freshmen classes, leaving the Juniors and Seniors for the second game.

The Sophomores got on top in the first game with the score 22 to Freshmen's 17.

The Second game was played between the Seniors and Juniors. The Seniors had a one point lead at the half with a score of 19 to 20 but couldn't keep that much at the end so it finished with a tie of 32 all. The Seniors picked up 6 points in the overtime while the Juniors could only get 2, making the Seniors the winners by a score of 38 to 34.

The third game of the evening was a game between the two losers to get the third and fourth places. This game was the Juniors against the Freshmen. The Juniors got 20 points to the Freshmens' 11 in the first half and came out on top at the end by a score of 41 to 22.

The last game of the evening was for the boys championship and played between the Seniors and Sophomores. The Seniors got off with a bang and a half-time score of 9 to 1. The Seniors then kept increasing this margin and finally won by a score of 42 to 22. The Sophomores were right in the game all the time but just couldn't compete with the Seniors.
